

The Henley Park Hotel

Henley Park Hotel
926 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20001
(202) 638-5200

The Digital Government Institute's 930gov event will have a block of guest rooms at the Henley Park Hotel, on a space available basis until August 4th at $169++ for the convention. In order to secure that rate, please click on the link below to secure your room.

RESERVE AT THE HENLEY PARK HERE

The Henley Park Hotel offers conveniently located accommodations, just a 3-minute walk from the Washington DC Convention Center, with on-site dining and recently renovated rooms.

About the Henley Park Hotel....

Experience the grandeur and timeless elegance of our historic boutique hotel in Washington, DC. A beautifully restored Tudor-style building, with newly renovated guest rooms, the Henley Park Hotel offers boutique accommodations enriched by antique furnishings, plush bedding with Frette Linens, and elegant décor.

Stay connected with free Wi-Fi while enjoying afternoon tea in the original parlor, welcoming guests since 1918. After a day of business or exploring, enjoy creative American fare under the starlight atrium of The Tavern or unwind with a classic cocktail at the Blue Bar Lounge.

One of the most historic boutique hotels in Washington, DC, we enjoy a perfect downtown location one block to the Convention Center and just a short walk to the White House and the National Mall. A proud member of the Historic Hotels of America, The Henley Park exudes a genteel grace, elegance and serenity.