

901 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20001
(202) 824-9200

The Digital Government Institute's 2024 930Gov room block at the Marriott Marquis Hotel is on a space available basis until August 3rd at $202++ for the convention. The additional non-negotiable fees not reflected in the above rate include taxes and a $25 "daily destination fee" at the hotel. This destination fee can be used for enhanced WiFi and a $25 food & beverage credit at certain restaurants within the hotel, along with other perks. Please check with Marriott on where the credit is accepted.

To secure that rate, please click on the link –

<https://book.passkey.com/e/50780147>

About the Marriott Marquis Hotel...

Marriott's flagship hotel, Marriott Marquis Washington, DC, is designed for the global traveler. Located across the street from the Walter E. Washington Convention Center, historic attractions and exciting nightlife, uncover the allure of the City Center. Stroll to Mt. Vernon Square, the National Mall, famous shopping and other sites in the downtown DC area.

926 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20001
(202) 638-5200

The Digital Government Institute's 2024 930Gov room block at the Henley Park Hotel is on a space available basis until August 3rd at $199++ for the convention. In order to secure that rate, please click on the link –

RESERVE AT THE HENLEY PARK HERE

The Henley Park Hotel offers conveniently located accommodations, just a 3-minute walk from the Washington DC Convention Center, with on-site dining and recently renovated rooms.

About the Henley Park Hotel...

Experience the grandeur and timeless elegance of our historic boutique hotel in Washington, DC. A beautifully restored Tudor-style building, with newly renovated guest rooms, the Henley Park Hotel offers boutique accommodations enriched by antique furnishings, plush bedding with Frette Linens, and elegant décor.

One of the most historic boutique hotels in Washington, DC, we enjoy a perfect downtown location one block to the Convention Center and just a short walk to the White House and the National Mall. A proud member of the Historic Hotels of America, The Henley Park exudes a genteel grace, elegance and serenity.